CB RICHARD ELLIS GROUP, INC. COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF TRAMMELL CROW COMPANY

Los Angeles, December 20, 2006 -- CB Richard Ellis Group, Inc (NYSE:CBG) today announced the completion of its previously announced acquisition of Trammell Crow Company (NYSE:TCC) for $49.51 per share of common stock in cash.

The transaction was valued at approximately $2.2 billion, which includes approximately $1.9 billion for the purchase of equity, and the balance attributable to transaction and integration costs (approximately $0.2 billion) and the repayment of TCC corporate debt (approximately $0.1 billion).

The acquisition expands CB Richard Ellis' global leadership and strengthens its ability to provide integrated account management and comprehensive real estate services for corporate, institutional, health care and government clients. The Company will have combined pro-forma 2006 revenues of approximately $4.4 billion and approximately 21,000 employees around the world.

"This transaction marks a significant milestone in our Company's 100-year history," said Brett White, President and Chief Executive Officer of CB Richard Ellis. "Adding Trammell Crow Company's talented professionals and proven capabilities to our global platform will enable us to improve our service delivery to clients and continue our drive for excellence."

Bob Sulentic, former President and Chief Executive Officer of TCC and now Group President of CB Richard Ellis, said, "Joining forces with CB Richard Ellis allows us to better serve our clients and provides more career growth and professional development opportunities for our employees."

CB Richard Ellis concluded its financing for the transaction with a five-year, $1.1 billion tranche A term loan facility, and a seven-year, $1.1 billion tranche B term loan facility. In addition, the Company's existing credit facility was amended to enable the transaction.
