Uncertain times call for fresh and innovative solutions. Over the past year, these leaders, together with our professionals across Southwestern Ontario, helped our commercial real estate clients maximize opportunity and minimize risk. They combined local knowledge with global reach.

CB Richard Ellis is the world's leading commercial real estate services company. Services include property sales and leasing, property management, corporate advisory services, facilities management, mortgage brokerage, appraisal/valuation, research and consulting.

We congratulate our top five producers of 2009 and thank the Southwestern Ontario commercial real estate community for its continued support.
